All-Pink Home Rites Unite Lorraine Miller-W. R. Wilcox

In the presence of close friends and relatives on Saturday afternoon at 2:30, Miss Lorraine Ellis Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, 1027 Patronella, became the bride of William Ross Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wilcox, 2824 Carson St. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, where the fireplace in the den had been banked with pink carnations and white chrysanthemums. A cluster of large wedding bells tied with pink satin hung overhead.

Miss Adele Curtis wearing turquoise blue satin back crystalline and carrying a nosegay of pink carnations was the bridesmaid.

The bride came to the place of ceremony on the arm of her father as the traditional wedding marches were played. She wore a ballerina length pink organza gown detailed with a portrait neckline. Completing the gown was a pink jeweled tiara holding a pink shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Bishop Elbert Steele of the Latter Day Saints Church officiated at the ceremony and Byron Johnson served as best man. At the reception Miss Janet Van Dyke was in charge of the guest book. As the guests signed the book they were presented with tiny bags of rice. A large pink and white wedding cake centered the table covered with a pink cloth. Pink and white cookies and mints were served with punch.

The newlyweds then left for Palm Springs for a honeymoon and will be home at 2824 Carson St.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and is a sophomore at USC.

The bridegroom, also a Torrance High graduate, is a senior at USC where he is a member of Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary and Phi Lambda Upsilon, chemistry honorary fraternities.
